District Overview

Introduction

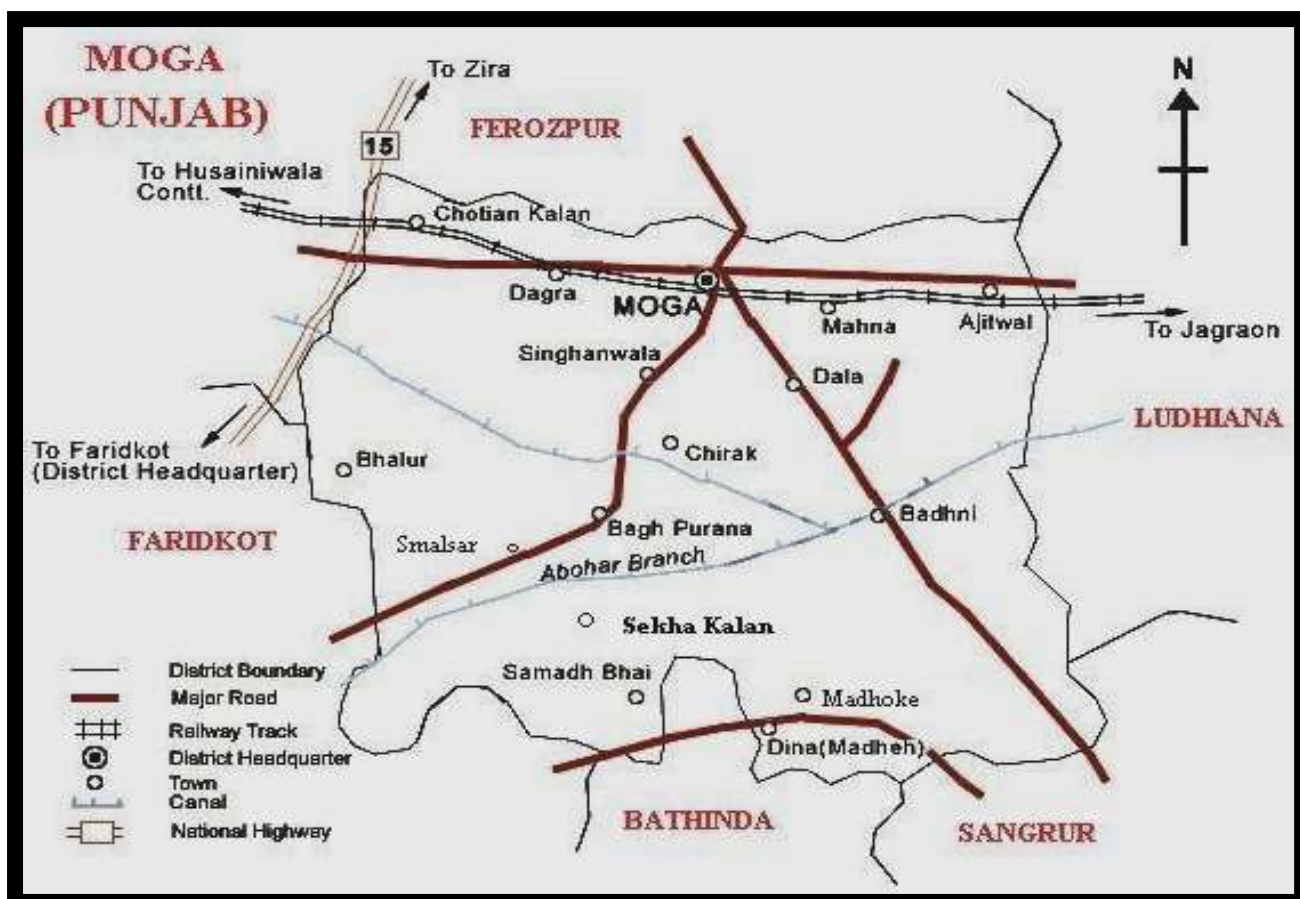

Situated in the central part of the state, Moga is one of the more prominent towns of Punjab. The district of Moga reflects the rich farming tradition of the region, and it falls within the bread basket of India. The Headquarters of the district is based in Moga City, which has many holy sites, strewn across its length and breadth. Moga District became the 17th district of Punjab State, when it was carved out of Faridkot district on 24th day of November 1995, of which it earlier was a sub-division. Moga town, the head quarter of the District, is situated on Ferozpur-Ludhiana road. Nestle, one of the biggest private companies in milk business in the country, opened its first food processing unit in the country at Moga. Home to many Punjabi families that have immigrated to North America, Moga is also known as Punjab's NRI capital and is a good stop for those exploring the element of the culture and life-style of Punjab.

Location & Geography

Moga District falls under the jurisdiction of Ferozpur division. Its boundaries touch the boundaries of Jalandhar district in north, Ludhiana district in East, Sangrur in South and Moga & Ferozpur in West. It stretches between longitudes 75 degree - 15, 75 degree -25 east and latitude 30 degree - 35 and 31 degree 15 north. It spreads over an area on 2216 km which comes to 4.42 % of the Punjab State.
