All the Deputy Commissioners in the State

Memo No. 2/1/PSPB-LPD-II/2006/SPL-1

Dated Chandigarh, the 20th July, 2006

Subject: Guidelines regarding Constitution of District Planning Committees in each district of the State as per 74th Constitutional Amendment, 1992.

Kindly refer to the Memo No. 2/1/PSPB-LPD-II/2006/9583 dated 5th July, 2006 vide which above cited guidelines were issued. There have been certain queries from some of the districts regarding the ballot paper. They wanted to know whether only a single ballot paper is to be issued to a voter (member) or as many ballot papers are to be issued as the number of candidates to be elected.

2. Your kind attention is drawn to para 3.9 of the guidelines dated 5/7/06. It is hereby again clarified that only one ballot paper bearing the names of all the candidates is to be issued to a voter. He/She will be required to mark ( √ ) against the name of the person to whom he wants to elect and mark (X) to whom he does not want to elect. He/She is free to mark as many ( √ ) against the names of the contesting candidates as he/she wants to elect.
